

English on Screen

Globalisation has resulted in increased demand for foreign language skills in the European labour markets. English has remained the most widely-spoken language in 19 out of the 25 Member States where it is not the official language. English is increasingly important for individuals wanting to succeed in the job market and for businesses to compete internationally.

Visit the world's largest Titanic visitor attraction and take a day trip to explore the scenic splendour of where many of the pivotal scenes in The Game of Thrones were shot. Consider how enriching the learning experience, through educational visits and the use of film, greatly increases the impact of the learning.

Background to the course

The most effective English language teachers/tutors continually seek to update and further develop their own language skills and knowledge. This course is designed to enable teachers to enhance their own English language proficiency and to gain insights into delivering more varied and creative lessons where learners are actively engaged in their own learning.

This very practical and personal development programme is evidence-based and delivered through relaxed interactive workshops. It is designed to build the competence, confidence and credibility of teachers/tutors as they seek to meet the specific needs of learners engaged in learning.

Dates of current session

Session EL1 08-12 August 2016

Session EL2 10-14 April 2017

Application for funding deadline:

02 February 2016

Objectives of the course

During this course participants will have the opportunity to:

- Explore how the use of film can lead to more effective practice in the English language classroom
- Investigate ways in which students may become more independent learners of English
- Experience Northern Irish culture and practise language skills.

Who should attend?

- Teachers / tutors from schools; VET; Adult Education; or, Higher Education
- Second chance or remedial education providers
- Higher education institution offering outreach courses for adults

Required English Language Skills

In order to benefit from this course, it is advised that participants have at least B2 level of English (European self assessment grid).

Location

Belfast, UK

Lead Trainers

Angela Morrow BA Hons, PGCE, Cert TESOL

Hazel Morrow BEd, CELTA

Janet Robinson BA, PGCE, CELTA

